Valentine's Day is on our February calendar. In preschool, we note the occasion with love songs and a card exchange. Your child is invited (not required) to bring in valentine's for their classmates. On the 14th, pin a note to the outside of the backpack to alert the teachers to valentines hidden within. The children will deliver their own cards to each others' cubbies. Children will open their cards at home.

The children are accustomed to seeing their classmates' names written in upper-case. The list is as follows:

- | | |
|---------|-----------|
| AINSLEY | BLYTHE |
| COLE | CORINNE |
| EMILY | EMMA |
| JAMES | KYLE |
| LILY | MADISON |
| NATALIE | NOAH |
| PETROS | SEBASTIAN |
| TESSA | ZOE |

During several conferences this week, the topic of play dates came up. These out-of-school play opportunities are a good way to foster budding classroom relationships. On the Preschool Webpage, you will find an article that might be helpful to you if you are considering play dates for your child. There is also an up-to-date program schedule for each preschooler.
