Jogamaya Devi
(25.03.1872 - 16.07.1958)

HISTORY

The pressing demand for women's education in South Calcutta led the authorities of Asutosh College to open the Women's Section in July, 1932. On completion of its 25th year of existence, it was felt that this section of the College should be run as a separate Women's College, with a separate establishment of its own. In 1957 the College was separated from the Men's College and affiliated to Calcutta University as Asutosh College for Women (1958), subsequently renamed Jogamaya Devi College, in the hallowed memory of Lady Asutosh Mukherjee.

ACHIEVEMENT

From a modest beginning, the College is now one of the largest Women's Colleges in West Bengal and attracts students from almost all the states of the Indian Union as well as from Bangladesh and Nepal. Its cosmopolitan character and its achievements in the academic field have lent to the College a unique position in the sphere of women's education in West Bengal. A new building of the College has already been constructed and efforts are being made to complete an additional wing, for extension of classes.

LOCATION

The college is conveniently located, adjacent to the Jatin Das Park Metro Station at the Hazra Crossing, and is opposite to the Chittaranjan Cancer Hospital. It is accessible by all modes of public transport. The nearest railway station, Rabindra Sarobar is only 1½ km away from the college campus.

EXTENDED CAMPUS

The college has an annexe located at 5A Rajeswar Dasgupta Road, running parallel to the S. P. Mukherjee road, behind the main building of the college. This building houses the Department of Geography; Commerce; Psychology and Biochemistry (proposed). The Geographic Information System Certificate Course will be introduced soon. It has also additional laboratory facilities for the Department of Zoology, Botany and Chemistry. In addition to this, it has two libraries-Student's Common Room and Canteen. It also houses the Computer Centre, NCC office and a part of the college administrative office.

CLASS ROOMS AND ENVIRONMENT

The college has a 100% ragging-free environment Excellence in the field of academics along with achievements in extra curricular activities is the only thing that makes the college environment most significant. With a four-storied building, another five-storied annexe, on a 1.1 acre area in the heart of the South Calcutta, providing sufficient classrooms and laboratories with dedicated staff make the institution a temple of learning. The college being adjacent to Jatin Das Park makes most of its class rooms bright and airy. A care has continually been taken by the Teaching Staff of the College to ensure better performance of the students. Teachers are sincere, regular and efficient in implementing class lessons as well as in evaluation of answer scripts. In connection with this, it should be noted that a number of teachers is engaged with various project work, sponsored by UGC as well as different academic institutions. In addition to this, teachers are also acting as Resource Persons with various Universities and educational institutions.

LIBRARY FACILITIES

The College has a well-equipped Main Library with reading room facilities. It has a stock of 60,000+ volumes of Books & Journals. There is also a separate Text Book Library with a reading room at 77, Asutosh Mukherjee Road for the benefit of students. Departments offering honours courses have seminar libraries for their honours students. In the extended campus we have two more common room libraries.

LABORATORY FACILITIES

The College has the following laboratories which are well equipped for the utmost benefit of the students:

- | | |

STUDENTS' UNION

The college has a Students' Union Council with student representatives from each section of each class of each stream. The Students' Union successfully brings out the Annual College Magazine, makes arrangements for the Annual Sports and organizes various cultural functions like Fests, Elan, Nabin Baran in collaboration with teaching and non-teaching staff of the college, with assistance from the college and sponsors. Anniversaries concerning birth and death of greatmen and women are observed with due respect by the Students' Union.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The college boasts of a rich cultural heritage. Eminent personalities in different fields owe their college education to this institution. Students are encouraged to participate in cultural programmes and seminars organised by the College as well as those organised by the other institutions, colleges and bodies.

Besides improving the academic pursuit among the students, the College takes the pride in improving the quality of social life by inducing moral values among the students. During the year (2004-2005) the College successfully organised a Seminar/Workshop entitled 'Value Orientation - Self empowerment and Self Management - The Indian Way' at Asutosh Memorial Hall, It was conducted by Vivekananda Nidhi supported by Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India and was attended by 700 students. Two follow up programmes of 5 day camp were also held and 88 students and teachers participated in the above camp.

The College frequently organises Annual Function popular seminars every year. This year Seminars were held by Mathematics, Geology, and Philosophy Departments. This year a Seminar on "Epics and Ethics" was organised by the Department of Philosophy which was a monumental success. It was attended by a full auditorium. The question-answer session lasted for about an hour. An interesting and popular lecture was also organised by 'Sanhita' on Womens' Day. Lectures were delivered by the eminent speakers.

Other than successful academic results, our students shine in other spheres also. One of our students is a state champion representing the National Level Badminton tournament, student has won many prizes in vocal performances organised by Dakshin Kolkata Utsav & Tara Bangla. Batches of our students have performed well inter College fests & competetions.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The college has a rich history of 75 long years, which has been reflected in the strong Alumni Association. With a vast membership, association plays a vital role in supporting various activities of the college.

AUDITORIUM

The Asutosh College Memorial Hall, a part of the Main Building, is used for holding cultural and academic functions.

WEBSITE

The College has its own website which reflects the day-to-day activities of the college. The URL of the website is "<http://www.jogamayacollege.net>". COMMUNICATIVE/FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH (MAJOR)

Proficiency in English is acknowledged to be an essential requirement in a multilingual nation like India, for communication at national as well as international levels. The present system of higher education, however, does not fully equip the advanced student for entry into the job market after securing the B.A. degree.

With this in mind, the UGC has introduced Communicative English in Select Colleges. The course is oriented towards acquisition of English language skills, both written and oral which will enable the learner to function effectively in the real world. Along with language learning, the course also has a practical element of on job training which, it is hoped, will prepare the learner to be absorbed into the job-market. The course is offered to a limited number of students and concentrates on individual needs and abilities. It is an intensive course of three years' duration (1550 marks). On completion the student will be awarded a B.A. Degree with a Major in Communicative English.

This Vocational Course has been introduced in Jogamaya Devi College. Students willing to join this course will have to take Communicative English as a Major subject, English (General) and Political Science (General). The course fee for vocational course is Rs. 1,200 per year, to be paid in July & January.
