RUSSIAN RIVER CRUISE—JULY 5-18, 2005

The countdown is on for our trip to Russia. As of the date of this issue (March 1, 2005), we are 126 days from our departure from Philadelphia's International Airport. Now we have to start getting serious about the final details of our trip.

First, the important deadlines:

Wednesday, April 6 - 90 days from departure—

This is the final day for anyone who has not taken the cancellation insurance to cancel and receive a full refund of the money they've paid to date. It is also the last date for anyone who has paid for the insurance to cancel and receive both the deposit paid to date AND the cost of the insurance. However, anyone who purchased the insurance can cancel right up until the day of departure and receive a full refund (less the cost of the insurance).

Friday, May 6—60 days from departure—This is the date that your balance is due at Collette Vacations. I am asking that you get it to me no later than 70 days from departure, which is April 26. I am enclosing an Invoice which reflects your balance. You may send one or more payments anytime before April 26.

Sunday, June 19—15 days from departure—Optional pre-trip meeting at the Flying W Airport in Medford, NJ. At this meeting I will distribute the official documents for the trip, including airline tickets and other related information. It will be an opportunity to ask questions and to meet your fellow travelers. Those who live at a distance are obviously not expected to attend — I will share the information and materials in a manner we'll work out in advance.

"The world is a great book of which they who never stir from home read only one page." . . . St. Augustine of Hippo (354 - 430 A.D.)

Tuesday, July 5:

Time to be announced—Free hometown pickup via coach from Vincentown to Philadelphia for those opting for it. Pickup at Vincentown Firehouse. Long term free parking available at Laufers'.

Time to be announced—Departure from Philadelphia International Airport. Flight information has not been announced yet. We arrive in Moscow on the morning of Wednesday, July 6, 2005.

$ 60 SURCHARGE ADDED TO INVOICE

The letter to the right is self-explanatory and describes the reasons for a change in the bottom line for your trip to Russia. All travel agencies (such as Collette Vacations) have been forced to implement this surcharge. The invoice included with this newsletter reflects this change.

We regret the need for this change, but it is part of the reality in this period of turmoil in both the travel and airline industries.

Re: 107656, Russian River Cruise

Dear Valued Client:

Increases in oil rates have caused skyrocketing fuel costs which you may have already noticed at your gas stations and in your oil bills. Unfortunately, these increases have also impacted air travel.

Airlines have implemented an increase in fuel taxes due to these increased rates. This increase affects travel to most Collette destinations, as well as internal flights within our tour programs. Collette Vacations is obligated to add/or increase the fuel surcharges associated with our tour packages. Your new fuel surcharge is $60pp, which is additional to existing air/fuel taxes you have already been charged. This surcharge has been added to your group.

In the event oil rates stabilize and the airlines reverse the fuel surcharges, Collette will remove the charge from your invoice.

We sincerely appreciate you choosing Collette Vacations and wish you a wonderful trip to Russia.

Best Regards,
Collette Vacations

RICK STEVES TALKS ABOUT MOSCOW AND ST. PETERSBURG

Travel guru Rick Steves, of PBS fame, wrote a book called "Rick Steves' Baltics & Russia". Here's his take on Moscow:

"Moscow encapsulates all that's good and all that's bad about Russia. Like the country, its vast size threatens to overwhelm you and swallow you up. You feel small under the press of its weighty buildings, starchy food, grime, and pollution. Among the sprawling tenement buildings and "Stalin Gothic" skyscrapers, one can still find brilliant golden domes and reminders of Czarist days. But the Soviet penchant for gigantism forces the visitor to search out these glimpses of Russia's past like flowers in a field of tall grass.

"Moscow lacks the inherent beauty of St. Petersburg, but visitors here will feel as though they are in a place where things are happening furiously. Some days Moscow will leave you mentally and physically exhausted, wondering why you decided to go there and when the plane is leaving. Other days, though, you almost like it.

"The city is huge. Rides around the center can take an hour. And the contradictions that pervade its society take you on an emotional roller coaster. Russians will bump, shove, and yell at you in a bakery line, and then smile and offer you everything they have in their kitchen when you dine at their apartments. The cramped and crumbling apartments constructed by Brezhnev are so unattractive that even the simplest church seems incredibly beautiful. Moscow's nouveau riche streak around in their mud-splattered Mercedes and BMWs, while young mothers stand along babushka selling everything from dried fish to a used pair of boots. For many Russians life is a game of survival, and during these times of awkward steps towards a market economy, the rules seem to change every day.

"Russophiles are evenly split between those who prefer Moscow and those who would choose nowhere else but St. Petersburg. Regardless of how or whether it charms you, Moscow is an exciting city to visit."

Next Newsletter: Rick Steves' take on St. Petersburg.

m.s. Litvinov

The beautiful Litvinov is the best ship in Russia, other than the Tolstoy. Built in 1991, she is the last and most modern of the German-built river cruise ships.

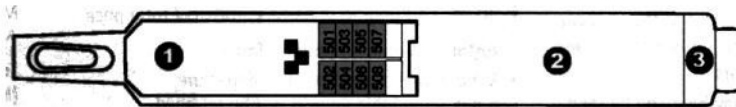

The Litvinov is the only ship in Russia with cabins on the Sun (top) Deck. She has two restaurants, allowing one seating dining. All cabins are outside, spacious, with many amenities, including a large picture window, refrigerator, and private bathroom with shower.

The Litvinov was completely refurbished in 2002. The ship is provisioned with Western-style amenities, and the crew and experienced Cruise Director are trained to cater to the needs of American travelers. You'll appreciate the convenience of English language only, onboard and during shore excursions. The Litvinov is non-smoking, except for the Sun Deck and outside walkways.

MONDAY, JULY 18, 2005

Itinerary annotated
With July days and dates

Mon. 11
Day 7: Yaroslavl

Arrive this morning in Yaroslavl. Founded in 1010 by Grand Prince Yaroslavl the Wise of Kiev, the city stretches for miles along the confluence of the Volga and Kotorosi Rivers. Yaroslavl has always been considered one of Russia's most beautiful cities with its wide tree-lined streets and attractive parks. On your tour, visit the exquisite Church of Elijah the Prophet, a masterpiece of local architecture, richly adorned with 17th century frescoes, and the ancient 12th century Transfiguration Monastery with murals depicting St. John's apocalyptic visions. In the afternoon continue your journey northward, cruising through the vast Rybinsk Lake. (B, L, D)

Tue. 12
Day 8: Goritsy

Enjoy breathtaking scenery as you sail north through White Lake, once known as the "Tzar's fishing grounds," and through the Volga-Baltic Canal. At mid-morning arrive in Goritsy, a peaceful farming community, for a walking tour and visit to the well-preserved, fortress-like Kirill Belosersk Monastery. In the afternoon, continue sailing northward. (B, L, D)

Wed. 13
Day 9: Lake Onega & Kizhi Island

Cruise through Lake Onega, the second largest lake in Europe and one of the world's purest. Arrive this afternoon on Kizhi Island located at the northern end of Lake Onega. Kizhi is renowned for its open-air museum, fascinating buildings of northern wood architecture including the remarkable Church of the Transfiguration. The spectacular church is more than a match for the colorful splendor of Moscow's St. Basil's Cathedral. Its 22 shimmering domes in three tiers are the ultimate in Russian fairy-tale architecture, restored to provide an authentic glimpse of the past. (B, L, D)

Thur. 14
Day 10: Svir River & Svir Stroy

Cruise through the 139-mile Svir River, which connects Lake Onega with Lake Ladoga. Pause for a few hours in Svir Stroy a quaint riverside settlement, dotted with stone cottages. Enjoy time to wander ashore for a close look at a typical rural settlement and enjoy the countryside. Continue cruising along the southern shores of Lake Ladoga before entering the Neva River. Enjoy the Captain's dinner tonight. (B, L, D)

Fri. 15
Day 11: St. Petersburg

Sail along the Neva River to St. Petersburg, Peter the Great's magnificent creation and one of the loveliest of European cities. Your morning tour of this fabled city of canals and Northern Lights will take you to Palace Square, the historic heart of St. Petersburg, and along Nevsky Prospect, the city's main boulevard lined with shops and restaurants. You'll see the monumental St. Isaac's Cathedral, Admiralty Tower and other great buildings that stand as monuments to the extravagant splendors of Imperial Russia. (B, L, D)

Sat. 16
Day 12: St. Petersburg

This morning enjoy a guided tour through the world-famous Hermitage Museum, the crown jewel of St. Petersburg, located in the Winter Palace, former home of the tsars. There is no museum which rivals the Hermitage in size, grandeur and holdings, including masterpieces by Da Vinci, Rembrandt, Rubens and Picasso. The afternoon is free for individual pursuits. Enjoy time for personal sightseeing or optional tours such as a canal cruise (weather permitting) through St. Petersburg's river ways and canals. This optional cruise provides a wonderful opportunity for visitors to appreciate this beautiful city from a different vantage point. Your private boat will navigate the Moika and Fontanka rivers - the main city's waterways in Peter the Great's time, and Imperial Russia's most fashionable addresses. As you relax on board, take in the magnificent sight of the pastel colored mansions and palaces of the nobility and the Royal Family. This evening you may enjoy an optional ballet performance. (B, L, D)

Sun. 17
Day 13: St. Petersburg

Today take an excursion to Tsarskoye Selo (formerly Pushkin) to see the incomparable Catherine Palace. Construction began on the palace in 1744 and after years of embellishment and reconstruction, it reached its current Baroque grandeur of elegant blue, white, and gold perfection. This afternoon take an optional excursion to Peterhof, the magnificent palace built by Peter the Great as his summer home on the shores of the Gulf of Finland. The construction of Peterhof was begun in 1714 by Peter the Great who dreamed of creating his own Versailles. The highlight of Peterhof is the elaborate system of fountains and gardens. (B, L, D)

Today is a free day to explore independently or choose an optional tour to Sergiev Posad, the seat of the Patriarch of the Russian Orthodox Church. Sun. 10
Day 6: Uglich

As you approach the delightful and picturesque Golden Ring city of Uglich, be on deck for a lovely view and panorama of the magnificent architectural monuments. Your walking tour includes the historic Transfiguration Cathedral, with its exhibition of valuable icons, and the blue domed Church of Prince Dimitry on the Blood. Continue cruising in the evening. (B, L, D)
