Introduction

“Hi, my name is Louis... Louisfyne. I’ve been working on this guide a number of days... Now it’s time to share it... It’s pretty OK. I like making it. I’m a collecting fool...”

Being a long time fan of Talking Heads and a collector of live recordings from this band – and also their individual solo careers – I’ve searched a lot of tradelists, always looking to trade for new recordings and now have put this list together for a chronology of their concerts and performances.

First to know – this list isn’t nearly complete – I guess it never could be. Often dates aren’t correct. If not sure, I’ve listed the date which I found most listed, sometimes I’ve got some confirmation from the traders, sometimes found a review in the web which was helpful. Some of the shows are released as bootlegs (take a look at the bootleg section of www.talking-heads.net). Also used as sources are dates from tourposters; backstage passes and so on.

Hope you’ll like this document. For any help (suggestions, corrections and additions) I would be very thankful. Also I’m always looking for some new trades.... I’m still hungry to expand my own collection. You can find my actual trading list at <http://de.geocities.com/louisfyne/> or drop me a line at louisfyne@yahoo.de

With best wishes

and greetings to all persons I’ve traded with in the past and who helped to complete this document

.....and very emotional thanks to Tina, Chris, David & Jerry for their music and art.

From the shows at the Pantages Theatre comes the movie "Stop Making Sense". Official audio releases on "Stop Making Sense" (1984) and "Stop Making Sense – Special Edition" (1999).

There are the following dates in trading lists: 12/15/1983, and 12/16/1983. It's possible that some audience recordings exists – I don't know – but it may also be possible that shows listed under these dates are also copies from the SMS movie.

There are a lot of bootlegs out which uses the tracks from the SMS video release: on LP "Stop Making Sense Part II" and on CD "Complete Gig"; "Stop Making Noise"; "Monkey Business"; "Greek Theatre" and maybe also "Natures Way".
