Confidentiality Agreement

I recognize and acknowledge that information concerning personal information about NASC Club members, such as players, parents, and referees, is considered confidential by the Club. The Club recognizes its responsibility to protect dissemination of this information only to those individuals who have authorized access for the information to perform activities on behalf of the Club.

As a condition of my receiving Club information, I will not distribute the information, in any media or by any distribution mechanism, to anyone or any agency who has not obtained prior written authorization from the Club. I recognize it is my responsibility to determine if a person is authorized for receipt of personal information. I further understand the need for the confidentiality of this information and respect the interest of the Club and its members and agree to abide by the rules and regulations as directed by the Club.
