To whom it may concern,

Reference: Sergio Morales

Mr. Morales has been with us for ten years. His working title is IT Systems Manager.

He is always punctual, courteous and communicates well with others. We have paid for several computer classes to help further his knowledge of computer software, hardware and some programming classes.

Please feel free to contact me if any questions arise about Sergio.

Sincerely,

J. Roger Bentley

To whom it may concern,

Sergio Morales has worked for American Floor Products Company, Inc., for ten years. His work ethics are admirable. His office is always clean and well organized.

He has taken on many different tasks, which he has completed quickly and creatively. His primary job is working with our computer system on several different projects including website design and product catalog construction.

I would recommend Sergio for just about any position to which he applied himself.

Sincerely,

John Wilson
General Manager
