

What People are Saying

“Rebecca Price Janney writes with the stroke of an artist, the clarity of a descriptive historian and the heart of a believer in tracing the finger of God upon the unfolding drama of American history.”

Samuel Hugh Moffett, professor emeritus, Princeton Theological Seminary.

“Knowledgeable and gracious are two words that immediately come to mind when I think of Dr. Janney’s writing and speaking. This winning combination makes her a great blessing to both readers and listeners.”

Marlene Bagnall, Litt.D., Director of Colorado and Greater Philadelphia Christian Writers Conferences.

“Rebecca is a thoughtful, sensitive writer who captures emotions well.”

Mike Yorkey, author or collaborator of 22 books including The Act of Marriage After 40 with Tim and Beverly LaHaye.

“Rebecca Price Janney combines creativity, careful scholarship and skillful writing into an entertaining and informative presentation of history. Her books are a delight to read; in person she is as warm and charming as she is on paper.”

David E. Fessenden, Managing Editor, Christian Publications/Horizon Books.

“The historical fiction books written by Dr. Rebecca Price Janney captured my children's imagination like no others. After finishing them, my children were eager to discover more about the people and places written about. It takes a true wordsmith to write in such a dynamic way.”

Tricia Goyer, homeschooling mother, freelance writer.

“Rebecca is a gifted writer and speaker. She understands culture well and is able to communicate effectively.”

Dr. Dan Young, Senior Pastor, First Baptist Church, Doylestown, PA.

“Rebecca Price Janney writes knowledgeably, passionately and with informed conviction about women who influenced history, society and the church. An able scholar, she has researched her material in depth and makes it accessible to people today. Her writing is sensitive and thought provoking. No one can be unmoved by what she communicates.”

Cora L. Hogue, Pastoral Assistant, Tenth Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

“Rebecca is that rare treasure of a first-class mind combined with a deep concern to build up the church. Whether she's writing a novel, telling the story of Christians in history, or speaking at retreats, she is a fount of spiritual insight and Christian warmth.”

Dr. Gary Shogren, Professor of New Testament, Director of Graduate Studies, Seminario ESEPA, San Jose, Costa Rica.

Contact Information

To schedule a speaking engagement with Dr. Janney you may reach her at:

(215) 646-5946

ppbkrtr@hotmail.com

Plan to contact her two months before your scheduled event whenever possible. Rebecca does speeches, retreats, school assemblies, banquets, church teaching and hands-on workshops. She ends her appearances with a book signing. Her rates are as follows and may be negotiable:

30-60 minute function: $100-150

One-session seminar or workshop: $125-175

For each additional seminar, class or workshop add $75

Weekend Retreat: $750-1,000

To order copies of Rebecca's books send the following form and a check made out to her to: 72 Wynmere Drive, Horsham, PA 19044

Harriet Tubman $5.00 Quantity _____

Great Letters in American History $13.00 Quantity _____

Great Women in American History $13.00 Quantity _____

Great Stories in American History $11.00 Quantity _____

Secret of the Lost Colony $6.00 Quantity _____

The Mystery of Loch Ness $6.00 Quantity _____

Search for Amelia Earhart $6.00 Quantity _____

These rates include PA state tax. For shipping add $3.00 for the first book, $1.00 for each additional book.

Sub-total books _____

Shipping _____

Total _____

Autograph instructions: