

Bibliography

KEY TO THE REFERENCES

In the bibliography only publications are included for which sufficient data are available that the reader can easily find the literature. Criteria are:

Magazines and papers: Name, date or issue number and year, or volume and issue number and year. If known the (first) page number is included. In most cases the publication can be found without knowing the exact page number using the index of the publication.

Books: Author(s), title, publisher (if known) and year of publication.

Name of the publication: The names are abbreviated using 2 to 4 capitals. Short names like Mojo and Vibe are not abbreviated. The language of the publication is indicated by 2 capitals, The key to abbreviations is given below.

Examples:

Daily or (bi)weekly publications: 1 or 2 digits for month / 1 or 2 digits for the day / last two digits of the year - first page number (if known):

DB 6/27/68 EN = Down Beat, June 27, 1967, page number unknown, published in English.

Monthly publications: 1 or 2 digits for month / last two digits of the year - first page number (if known):

DB 10/00-62 EN = Down Beat October 2000, page 62, published in English.

Less frequent publications like bimonthly or quarterly publications: 1 or 2 digits for the first month - 1 or 2 digits for the last month / last two digits of the year - first page number (if known).

In some cases the seasons are used: WI - Winter, SP = Spring, SU = Summer and FA = Fall:

JTK 7-8/94-70 GE = Jazzthetik, July-August 1994, page 70, published in German

JRP SU/99-31 EN = Jazz Report, Summer 1999, page 31, published in English.

Publications for which the volume and/or issue number are used instead of the date:

JS #9/93-32 DA = Jazz Special, number 9, 1993, page 32, published in Danish.

S&F v2/#2/66-61 EN = Sound & Fury, volume 2, number 2, 1966, page 61, published in English.
