

Yesenia Diaz

Web Designer

September 30, 2020

Thank you so much for allowing us to quote you on this project. As you know our company aims for your complete satisfaction on this project. We offer quality services at affordable prices. As discussed this project will be broken down in a timeline and the deliverables will be given upon full completion of each task as stated. Any revisions must be set in writing with both parties agreeing to the revisions and revised deadlines.

We will be pleased to work with you and address any concerns or questions that you have on the project. When our customers succeed, we all succeed. It's in this core value that we thrive on. Our quality and commitment to meet your needs is unparalleled.

Thank you again for your consideration and time to meet with us. We value your input on this proposal and hope to work with you in the future. Should you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to us and we will be happy to assist.