

The government can always find money for things like nuclear submarines, tax cuts and ads about good they are, but there's never money for schools, hospitals and public services.

Tasmania needs a government that will put the needs of people first.

www.geocities.ws/lutruwitasocialists